

Nature Lodge

Situated 30kms from Diego Suarez in the charming village of Joffreville, Nature Lodge provides an ideal base to explore the surrounding Montagne d'Ambre Reserve. The attractively designed bar and restaurant offer warm, friendly service. Meals are simply delicious with a good selection of fresh ingredients and sea food on offer.

Accommodation consists of 12 bungalows with a warm and cosy ambience, all made of wood, bamboo and other local materials. The bungalows have private bathrooms as well as a private terrace with magnificent views over the bay in the north and Montagne d'Ambre in the west.

Nature Lodge is the ideal starting point for various excursions in the north of Madagascar; visit Montagne d'Ambre National Parc, Ankarana Nature Reserve, la Mer d'Emeraude and many more exciting places. Also, there are a multitude of other activities available at the Nature Lodge including hiking excursions, bird watching and lemur tracking in the neighboring parks. The restaurant is made of rosewood and bamboo and opens up onto a large terrace with panoramic views of the Bay of Diego and the mountains. Enjoy the local dishes made of cocoa, seafood and other fresh products from nature and round off your day in the cozy bar with exotic drinks such as litchee rum or coco punch.
