

Casa Rex

Casa Rex is a guest house and restaurant on mainland Mozambique, with sweeping views of the sparkling ocean and islands of the Bazaruto Archipelago. A small footpath winds down to the beach below and the lodge swimming pool, overlooking Vilanculos Bay, is the perfect place to spend a relaxing afternoon. There's also a lovely verandah and many large indigenous trees offering much-needed shade, and adding to the tranquil feel of the property. The lounge and dining areas' are furnished with custom-crafted wood furniture, and decorated with beautiful carvings and interesting local art.

Casa Rex offers a variety of room types which all have sea views, en-suite bathrooms and private balconies or verandas. There are 8 Acacia rooms, 4 of which offer double beds and are upstairs and the other 4 Acacia rooms offer twin beds and are located downstairs.

Amenities in the Acacia rooms include en suite shower, bar fridge and private balcony. The 2 Premium rooms are suitable for families, as 2 additional single beds or cots can be added to these rooms to accommodate children. The one Premium room is equipped with a double bed, an en-suite bath/shower, mosquito nets and a terrace, while the other Premium room is equipped with 3 single beds, an en-suite shower, mosquito nets and a terrace. The 4 Courtyard suites are comprised of a double bed, en-suite bath and shower, sitting area with day bed, mosquito nets, bar fridge and private balcony. These suites can also accommodate 2 additional beds or cots for children. The Honeymoon suite is made up of a double bed, en-suite shower, private dressing area, fans, mosquito nets, internet access and a large private terrace.

Soak up the relaxing atmosphere, explore the nearby market or stroll down to the beach. The hotel's friendly staff will help you plan your day, and Casa Rex provides free transport to and from activities within Vilanculos. There are many activities on offer including scuba-diving, dhow trips, snorkeling, deep sea fishing, catamaran trips, sunset cruises and full-day trips to the Bazaruto Islands with a barbecue lunch on the beach.
