

Birkenhead

Birkenhead House, perched high on the cliffs of Hermanus overlooking the whale watchers' paradise of Walker Bay, accommodates guests in the utmost luxury and is the perfect destination for those seeking the pinnacle of seaside living. From May to December the Southern Right whale (Eubalaena australis) graces Walker Bay with its massive presence. Looking out from the terrace, the beach on the left is Voëlklip, (translated from Afrikaans means bird stone). Nestled in a narrow coastal plain between the mountains and the ocean, Hermanus offers walkers several options, all of which feature spectacular views of the coastline or the beautiful fynbos-covered mountains.

Most of the eleven opulently appointed sea-facing suites offers expansive vistas of Walker Bay. From the comfort of the residence, guests can look forward to sighting the majestic Southern Right whales that enter the sheltered waters of Walker Bay every year to calve. The suites are individually decorated in an uncluttered, lavish style with glorious sea views, TV and DVD.

A unique whale watching experience in season, departs from Kleinbaai Harbour every day in a custom built boat with a raised viewing platform. Dyer Island cruises invite you on an unforgettable journey to the domain of the Southern Right Whale with their accomplished skipper and trained guides. During the voyage around Dyer Island, you will also experience a great diversity of marine wildlife, including African Penguins, Cape Fur Seals, Great White Sharks and various sea birds. Get taken out for a tour around Hermanus to see the variety of shops, restaurants and places of interest in and around town. Spend the day with the legendary Brian McFarlane, the best and most experienced shark man in Southern Africa. You can play 'bait' in the cage with just a few inches between you and the sharpest teeth in the marine kingdom. There are many more activities for guests at Birkenhead house, such as the local wine tour, sea kayaking, boat fishing, horse riding, scuba diving, golf, renting bikes, yoga, the township tour, bird watching, deep sea fishing, and quad biking.
