have to get out of bed to experience these amazing creatures!

The Marine Hotel in Hermanus, a 5 star Relais & Chateaux Hotel, is unique in its position; perched atop the cliffs in one of the most beautiful natural landscapes in Southern Africa. Hermanus offers some of the best land-based whale watching in the world and at The Marine you don't even

With its understated luxury and sophisticated décor, the hotel boasts 42 luxury rooms and suites. Spectacular views can be captured from your bedroom window, including the best land-based whale-watching in the world. There are several different room selections which include Double rooms, Luxury Doubles, Suites, and Premier Suites.

Stroll along the cliff hugging path and take in our breath taking views of the Hermanus Bay. The sparkling, heated courtyard pool might beckon, perfect for catching some African sun or sip a glass of local wine in The Sun Lounge with nothing between you and the South Pole, other than 3,000 miles of ocean. Liz McGrath's inspiration for Seafood at The Marine came about after a chance visit to the seafood counter at Harrods in London. The style is informal and busy, with the emphasis on the freshness of the fish from Walker Bay, great style and friendly service. The Pavilion is relaxed and informal, with an understated elegance and offers one of the finest dining experiences in Hermanus. The décor is glamorous and encompasses the beautiful views over Walker Bay. The Collection Boutique offers an extensive range of gifts and curios. The team at the Traveldesk is on hand to maximize your South African experience to the fullest extent with their wealth of local knowledge and experience. Pamper yourself at The Carhele Health and Beauty Spa, enjoy the heated courtyard pool or swim in the tidal pool situated below the hotel where whales are at times just 100 meters away.
