The Palm Restaurant serves breakfast lunch and dinner and offers a comprehensive wine list and cocktails. Dining outside under the African night sky amidst the sound of the mighty waterfall makes for a romantic evening to be remembered.

The Victoria Falls are surely the most memorable of the world's seven natural wonders. One can never tire of seeing this huge waterfall and basking in its presence. First documented by David Livingstone, who named them Victoria Falls after the British Queen at the time, the falls are known in local dialects as "Mosi-oa-Tunya" - literally translated as "The Smoke that Thunders" after the massive plume of vapour that rises from the chasm into which the water pours.

Ilala Lodge is the closest accommodation to the falls and it is an easy walk to get to see this amazing spectacle of nature. The town itself is extremely user friendly with all basic amenities and attractions within walking distance from the hotel.
