

Ngong House

Ngong House is a privately owned home on the outskirts of Nairobi in the Karen district. Far away from any main roads it is situated on 10 acres of private land offering a stunning view of the Ngong Hills. This beautiful, luxurious and romantic home stay gives the impression you are out in the African Bush - yet you are only 20 minutes away from downtown Nairobi.

Guests stay in imaginative wooden tree houses facing the distinctive Ngong Hills. These double storied creations are not ordinary tree houses but cater to every comfort imaginable; stained glass windows, fully stocked bar, brass showerheads, comfy couches, hand made furniture and lamps. There is also an intimate dining area and cupboard doors have been fashioned from old Arab ships and a small kitchen allows the staff to serve your meals in the privacy of your own tree house! Raised 15 feet from the ground, large windows make the most of the uninterrupted views over unspoiled bush.

The five thatched tree houses are spacious (75 sq m), well-spaced and hidden from each other but plenty of natural bush. One of the tree houses is lower and requires less climbing. Another is suitable for families as it can accommodate two extra beds. The tree houses are named for the four points on the compass and are decorated accordingly. There are also two rooms in the main house suitable for older people.

Guests have full use of the 10 acre grounds, including the swimming pool and adjoining bar and dining room. The gardens are left to natural growth and indigenous flora and bird life. Breakfast and lunch can be served on the shady lawns, cocktails are served by the campfire and dinner is served in an open sided thatched building with a fireplace and lit with candles. The food is excellent, prepared by the owners with great attention to detail.

The Giraffe Centre is within easy walking distance and a short drive will take you to a variety of small workshops and centers where you may do some shopping. There is also Karen Blixen's Farm and Daphne Sheldrick's Animal Orphanage nearby which given the time is certainly worth a visit. During the day you will have a private driver / guide who will take you shopping and sightseeing after lunch at Ngong House. There are many pleasant walks in the surrounding countryside.

For a luxurious, romantic and very special stay in Nairobi, Ngong house is the place.
