

WINGS OVER NORTHERN BOTSWANA & VICTORIA FALLS

~Itinerary~

Days 1 & 2 : The Okavango – Land Activity Camp

Arrive in Maun where you are met and transferred to lite aircraft charter for the flight into first camp. Activities here center on the game drives as well as walks in some of the Okavango's most scenic and private areas. The choice of Classic camp includes Chitabe, Chitabe Lediba, Jacana, Seba and Xigera. Premier Camps include: Mombo and Little Mombo.

Day 3 & 4: Okavango-water/multi-activity camp

Fly from your first camp to a contrasting sector of the Okavango to enjoy the activities on offer there. Mokoro-ing, boating, fishing, walks - and at some camps, game drives are on offer. The choice of Classic/Vintage camps includes Duba Plains, Kwetsani, Tubu Tree*, Little Vumbura, or Premier Camps: Jao and Vumbura Plains Camps.

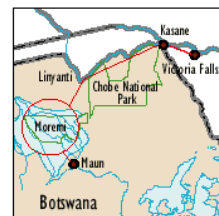

Day 5 & 6 : The Linyanti or Savuti

From the Okavango, fly northeast to the Chobe/Linyanti waterways. This is a completely contrasting region to the Okavango Delta. Activities are enjoyed around the Savuti Channel or Linyanti River on boats, vehicles or from hides. Choose from Classic Camps: DumaTau, Selinda Camp and Savuti Camp or Premier Camp: Kings Pool, Zarafa.

Day 7: Victoria Falls

Guests are flown from their camp to Kasane where they board vehicles for 85km drive to Victoria Falls in Zimbabwe. On arrival, guests are checked into the Illala Lodge on a bed and breakfast basis, leaving you free to eat where they please and take in any of the wonderful falls.

Explore three contrasting areas in the Okavango and Linyanti and finish with a night in Victoria Falls. Departures are daily. All accommodation, the twice daily game activities at the camps, all inter-camp transfers by air and the road transfer from Maun to Victoria Falls are included. The safari can be run in either direction and customized to suit individual preferences.

Day 8: Safari ends

The safari ends after breakfast with your transfer from your hotel or lodge to the airport.
